Three places on the Indians' pitching staff have been permanently filled. Big Ed Klepfer has made good. Guy Morton is pitching well and Stanley Co-cleske also shows class. Willie Mitchell needs some more hot weather to help his control. Fohl has hopes of taming its control.

Joe Wood may be idle all this sea-son. He took advantage of the ex-istence of the Federal League in 1914 and got a big salary from Boston. This contract and the Federal League both have expired and it now is a question where Wood can catch on. The Nationals have been playing in good form, and Manager Griffith is hopeful of taking the remaining two games from the world champions, in which event the Nationals may take the lead in the race.

The locals are just beginning to hit up to their standard. Hot weather will bring both Judge and Rondeau into batting form, and that will make a lot of difference in the team's offensive strength.

Alexander, the Phillies' pitching star, attributes much of his success to the fact that a majority of the batters in the National League are high ball hitters, and as Alexander has the ability to keep the ball low, whether it is a fast one or a curve, this gives him a great advantage over these batters who McRide whoelers the ball is bent Moeller. great advantage over these batters who are helpless whenever the ball is kept Morgan around their knees.

when Duff Lewis of the Red Sox tied the score in the ninth inning Friday at the Polo Grounds, President Lannin of the Red Sox, who had been watching the proceedings gloomily from a box near the Boston bench, leaped to his feet and emitted a yell of delight, at the same time throwing several old balls to spectators in the grandstand behind him. Lannin is a base ball fan as well as a magnate, and a victory makes him as happy as a schoolboy, says the Evening Sun. With the score tied, he applauded Lewis and other Boston players, also urging them to go in and win. It was Lannin's Williams other Boston players, also urging them to go in and win. It was Lannin's enthusiastic rooting that worked his men up to fight desperately for every point, and the Boston magnate was handsomely rewarded when, in the eleventh inning, with one out, Keating walked Hooper, who reached third on Hoblitzel's two-bagger and ran across the plate on Lewis' infield out.
